ELECTRIC LIGHT

Plant Destroyed By $10,000 Fire.

Heavy Blow That Will Cause Much Public and Private Damage.

The power house of the electric light plant, owned by the Hopkinsville Gas and Lighting Company was totally destroyed by fire at Sunday. The loss is $10,000, with $4,000 insurance. The origin of the fire is not known. There was no one in the building when it caught, and when the flames were discovered the roof was falling. The plant furnished lights for the city and in residences and business houses. The streets will be in darkness until the plant can be rebuilt, which will require probably two months or more.

The fire department tried to reach the scene, which was near the L. & N. Railroad bridge, but the hose would not reach that far and nothing could be done. The expensive plant was a complete wreck, even to the brick walls.

The building was comparatively new, having been erected about ten years ago. It was on the river bank, built of brick and stone one story high.

The residences not equipped with gas fixtures will be greatly inconvenienced and the streets will be of course be entirely without light during the process of rebuilding.

Mr. W. T. Tandy is president of the company.

The loss will seriously cripple the plant, but it will of course be rebuilt as soon as possible.

CONVENTION ENDS.

Universalists Will Meet at Charleston in October.

Officers Elected for Ensuing Year — Mrs. Irwin's Meeting Came to Close Sunday Night.

The annual State convention of the Universalist church convened in Hopkinsville Friday and remained in session over Sunday. The annual address was delivered by the Rev. Mrs. A. J. Irwin, pastor of the Universalist church at Pensacola, Fla., who is conducting a series of meetings here. Saturday morning there was a song service, followed by prayer by Rev. H. C. Beckett, pastor of the local church. A roll call of the churches was next in order and delegates from Fruit Hill, Good Hope, Boulah, Crofton and Hopkinsville were present at this session. Reports from the various churches were received, showing them to be in a healthy, working condition. Most of the churches reported Sunday Schools and regular preaching. The appointment of committees concluded the business session Saturday morning and at 11 o'clock Rev. Mrs. Irwin delivered an address. At the business session in the afternoon officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

C. P. MODERATOR.

Judge Settle Chosen to Preside Over Assembly.

Winning Nominee Regarded as Favoring Union With the Northern Presbyterians.

Dallas, Texas, May 19.—Little more than the work preliminary to its regular business was accomplished at the first session here of the seventy-fifth annual General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Delegates have been arriving all day and tomorrow's session will see it in working form.

During the forenoon a praise service and the delivery of the annual sermon by the Rev. R. M. Tison, D. D., of Denver, Colo., consumed the time. The sermon was one suggestive of and favoring the proposed union of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and Presbyterian Church of the United States of America.

Dr. Tison continued to preside as moderator during nearly all the afternoon meeting, the time being consumed with the election of his successor, Judge Warner E. Settle, of Frankfort, Ky., a Justice of the Court of Appeals of that State. His only opponent was Judge F. H. Prendergast, of Marshall, Texas. The contest between these two candidates was considered distinctly one between the elements of the church favoring union with the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America and those opposed to it, Judge Settle, the winning nominee, being regarded as favoring union. He was elected by a vote of 158 to 76.

Attendant upon the convention are a large number of members of the church here to watch the outcome as to the union question. Many delegates to the assembly are with the anti-union element and are active in their labors to defeat the union proposition. The doctrine of fatalism as touched upon by the mother church is contrary to their views and as are also the views upon the education of ministers of that organization.

Baltimore, Md., May 19.—The Rev. Dr. John G. Murray, just elected Episcopal Bishop of Kentucky, will return from New York this afternoon or early tomorrow morning. It is an open secret among his friends that Dr. Murray will accept the high honor, and it is expected that his letter of acceptance will at once be forwarded to the Kentucky diocese. Dr. Murray is one of the most brilliant men in the Episcopal church and is regarded in the highest esteem in Baltimore, but among churchmen generally it is accepted that the high honor accorded him in Kentucky is beyond declination.

MUCH ATTENTION

Attracted by the Coming of Bob Taylor Here.

New Lecture Said to Give Widest Range to His Valued Talents.

Commenting on Bob Taylor's new lecture, "Castles in the Air," which he will deliver at Holland's Opera House next Monday night, May 30, the Nashville Banner says in part: "Castles in the Air" is what is termed a new lecture. It is bright and witty, full of tender sentiments and beautiful similes, like all the others that have emanated from the pen and tongue of Bob Taylor but the jokes are new, the lessons that fall in soil that will bring forth a hundred fold, the soil of appreciation and recognition of truth; truths presented in so simple a manner that a little child might comprehend. The lessons of contentment and happiness are taught by Bob Taylor. There is a mighty sermon of love contained in the beauties of his word painting. Humility and simplicity are taught. He teaches that poverty does not fetter the soul from its ultimate reward, nor drags impair the intellect. He admonishes all to stand steady in the swing of life's dream, and promises that by-and-by we shall swing out in the full light of truth. He teaches that the antidote for unhappiness and crime is work and employment of the brain. He urges contentment. "The tomtit," said the speaker, "should not try to soar as high as the eagle, but should root in the fence corner, and the wine-glass of happiness contains many sparkles of delight to some as does the goblet for others."

WATER HOT FOR FIREMEN.
Helmet Is Fitted with Circular "Rose" That Sprays Water Downward in All Directions.
That a falling sheet of water is one of the most effective protections against fire is well known. Many theaters are provided with "water curtains," and some buildings can be made to descend from the eaves on all sides where fire threatens from without. This principle, says the Scientific American, is applied to individual firemen in a new invention that has recently been experimented upon by the Berlin fire brigade. On an ordinary fireman's helmet is placed a circular "rose" that sprays water downward in all directions at an angle of 45 degrees. The fireman has thus pure air to breathe, even when he is surrounded by the thickest smoke, as the sheet of spray acts as filter. Besides this the water keeps the fireman cool and prevents his clothing from taking fire. The user must, of course, be clad in waterproof material, although even this would not be absolutely necessary in summer.

Weird Sounds.

Weird sounds of atmospheric disturbances—unlike the ordinary telegraphic and inductive disturbances—have been noticed by Mr. J. E. Taylor, a British electrician, during experiments in wireless telegraphy. They are more frequent in summer than in winter, most in evidence for a few hours about sunset, and often precede a storm or gale. They resemble the flowing and bubbling of water, though there are also cracklings and screamlings like rocket discharges. The latter are attributed to the electric currents set up by the fall of meteors, and the noises are supposed to be connected with the ionization of the air, disturbances being caused when ionization is dissipated by an electric field.

BACK NUMBERS OF PATENTS

Uncle Sam Is Republishing Such as There Is Any Legitimate Demand For—Curious Facts.

When Uncle Sam grants a patent a quantity of copies are printed for sale to inventors, manufacturers, patent lawyers and others who may wish to obtain them. Occasionally the demand exceeds the supply, and an applicant is informed that the stock is exhausted. Partial provision has been made, however, for reprinting patents for which such calls are made. Some of the delay in the past has been due to a lack of the necessary money. The patent office now pays for itself, but the commissioner is not at liberty to spend his receipts as he likes. He can use money only for the purposes provided by congress. In a letter to the American Inventor, C. M. Ireland, chief clerk of the patent office, says that congress gave $6,000 more for this purpose for the year ending June 30, 1904, than for the previous 12 months, and that last year nearly $35,000 was devoted to "exhausted" copies alone. He adds: "This year all exhausted copies are being reproduced without any unnecessary delay, when a request to reprint them is received by the office. When it is stated that copies are desired for use in court or for other important purposes they are delivered to the correspondent within one week. Orders which fail to give reasons that would justify the office in taking them out of their regular order are filled in about two weeks. "To reprint all the copies that are reported exhausted would cost in the neighborhood of $126,000, but, at the present, it would not be wise to undertake to do this, even though the appropriation could be obtained, for the simple reason that there is no available space within the walls of the patent office building where such copies could be stored. In a very short while the current weekly issue of copies will fill all the unoccupied space the office has for such purposes. More room rather than more copies is the urgent need of the patent office."

THE PEANUT CROWDED OUT

High Price of Cotton Means That Little Land Is Being Devoted to Popular Legume.

We are told that the great doctrine of the solidarity of mankind is being enforced as never before by the discoveries of modern science. Medicine, economics, biology, physics in their latest developments, teach us with hitherto unapproached force that all men and all things are so bound together that what affects one affects all. It is an impressive truth, says the Philadelphia Ledger. Consider the case of man, the cotton crop and the peanut. Within the last few years the consumption of the peanut has vastly increased. This interesting legume has fought its way over prejudice and contempt to a place of unchallenged preeminence in popular esteem. Sneers have not prevailed against it. Continually in the presence of the unparalleled popularity of the peanut hides at last its diminished favor. Last year we broke the wrinkled shells of 5,000,000 bushels of pin-dars, and ate some billions of arachis "nuts." If essentially the choice of a plebeian taste, if the rich and fastidious prefer a daintier delicacy, the peanut is without a rival in the favor of the multitude. But now observe. The plant arachis hypogaea demands an early spring, a hot and moist summer and a sandy, friable loam. But these are conditions required by another plant of great usefulness and value—namely, cotton. With this staple at a normal value, Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee have found it advantageous to devote a part of their acreage to the edible at the expense of the sartorial crop. But lately cotton has been going up, and the south is naturally planting it to the neglect of other crops; unhappily, almost to the exclusion of the peanut. Thus we see that such an unimportant fact as the value per bale of cotton vastly affects human happiness in a remote particular.

Democratic Ticket.

FOR CONGRESS,
HON. A. O. STANLEY,
of Henderson county.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce
W. L. PARKER
As a candidate for Magistrate in the Third Magisterial district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Twelve divorces were handed down at one time in Louisville Saturday.

The Michigan judge who has decided that it is a husband's right
and duty to spank an unruly wife,
must be a crusty old bachelor.

Postmaster General Payne says
that the receipts of the Postoffice Department for the fiscal year ending July 1 will approximate $144-100,000.

Chicago City Council has authorized the sale on May 27 of $5,500-000 bonds, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the liquidation of judgment against the city.

Judge Osborne, of Cynthia, has been appointed by the Governor to preside over the circuit judgeship contest of H. W. Bradburn against John Galloway, in Warren county.

Rev. John G. Murray, of Baltimore, Md., says he has not yet made up his mind whether or not he will accept the election to the Episcopal bishopric.

The trial of James McDonald at Bedford, Ind., for the murder of Miss Sarah Schaefer is in progress.
There is no conclusive evidence against McDonald and his acquittal may be expected.

The Hon. Peter Staub, former Mayor of Knoxville, Tenn., and Minister to Switzerland during Cleveland's first Administration,
died in Knoxville Thursday night
as the result of injuries received in a runaway.

There will be twenty Democratic state conventions held in June.
The first one in the month will be in Arkansas. There will be five held in May. They are as follows:
Alabama, May 25; Arizona, May 25; Maryland, May 26; Ohio, May 24; Tennessee, May 25.

Marconi's daily newspaper will be begun in Tokyo. The Galmdaina this week and will be continued on the other vessels of the Cunard line.
It will receive news by wireless telegraphy from both sides of the ocean. The world continues to move.

Adj. Gen. Haly has been notified that the inspection of the Kentucky militia made recently and reported to the War Department shows the body to be in excellent condition and entitled to receive the benefits
under Section 14 of the militia laws of the United States.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustach-ian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is there-sult, and unless the inflammation
can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured
by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

That Tired Feeling

is a Common Spring Trouble.
It's a sign that the blood is deficient
in vitality, just as pimples and other eruptions are signs that the blood is impure.

It's a warning, too, which only the hazardous fall to heed.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove it, give new life, new energy, strength and animation.

They cleanse the blood and clear the complexion.

Accept no substitute.

"I felt tired all the time and could not sleep. After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla
a while I could sleep well and the tired feeling had gone. This great medicine has also cured me of eczema." Mas. C. M.
Boon, Glend, Conn.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

Tom Johnson, of Ohio, is boosting Polk for President. The Democratic convention of Ohio will meet to day and a hot fight between Hearst and the field is expected.
The anti-Hearst forces will be in control, but no instructions will be given.

The Illinois Republican convention, after a deadlock of a week, adjourned till May 31, without making a nomination for governor.
Gov. Yates was slightly in the lead in a field of seven candidates, being 250 votes short of a nomination.

Chairman Allie Young announces that he will not be a candidate to succeed himself as state chairman, but says he will be for Kehoe or some other anti-administration man against McQuown. He also says he is not pushing Hearst's candidacy, which greatly simplifies the political situation in Kentucky and leaves Hearst without any strong support in the State. An uninstructed delegation made up of delegates favorable to Parker, Stevenson and Gorman, is the most probable outcome of the June 8 convention.

The 116th General Assembly of the Presbyterian church is in session at Buffalo and the question of the union of the Northern and Cumberland branches of the church is the chief topic of interest. It will be settled by a vote next Thursday.
It is conceded that a majority of the Assembly favors union with the Cumberland church, but there is an influential minority opposed to union upon the terms proposed.
The opposition is based principally upon the ground that it would be unwise to attempt to force the issue
at this time on the basis suggested,
and that it may be necessary therefore to modify present plans in order to secure unanimity at the present Assembly.

The Home Telephone company are progressing rapidly with their work and the way they have carried out their promises to the city and the public at large, is to be commended by every citizen of Hopkinsville. They are not only doing business legally but are putting up the most modern construction and installing the most modern equipment in Kentucky to day.
The writer has just returned from the St. Louis fair, where he saw a complete Automatic exchange of the type Hopkinsville is getting and it was the most complete service at the big show. Hopkinsville citizens certainly have reasons to congratulate themselves that they will soon have the most perfect telephone service in the world and that it is owned and controlled by home people who are doing business
in a legal and business like manner.
The Home Telephone company deserve the support and patronage
of the people.

HAIL STORM YESTERDAY

Accompanied By Much Wind and Rain.

A severe rain and hail storm visited the city yesterday, just before noon, accompanied by much thunder and lightning. There was a furious gale that tore many limbs
from the shade trees and some trees were blown down. The most serious damage done in the city was to the Water Works plant, the smokestack being blown down at a loss of probably $100. The rain was very welcome, but was by no means general. It did not extend as far southwest as Newstead.

Sale will be held next Friday.
The sale will be about six weeks later than last year. Cattle are generally in good condition and the demand for fat stock is keen. There will be no public dinner, but, as usual, there will be many well filled baskets.

ONE SOLDIER PAID.

Some Are Disposed to Refuse to Liquidate.

Private Creal Cox, of the local militia company, is the first of convicted soldiers to come forward and pay the fine assessed against him as result of the courtmartial
trial held here by Major Bassett
several months ago, says the Paducach Register. He was fined $2 and paid up, while only two others have promised Captain Caldwell to liquidate. Some are disposed to refuse.

SHYLOCK

Shylock was the man who wanted a pound of human flesh. There are many Shylocks now, the convalescent, the consumptive, the sickly child, the pale young woman, all want human flesh
and they can get it—take Scott's Emulsion.

Scott's Emulsion is flesh
and blood, bone and muscle.
It feeds the nerves, strengthens the digestive organs and they feed the whole body.

For nearly thirty years Scott's Emulsion has been the great giver of human flesh.

We will send you a couple of ounces free.

JAPS SUFFER. II

Another Vessel Hit By a Russian Shell.

Skyrdloff Arrives at Vladivostok
and Assumes Command.

Tokio, May 22.—During the reconnaissance of Port Arthur made by Admiral Togo on Friday of last week a shell hit the torpedo boat destroyer Akatsuki, killing 1 officer and 24 men.

A supplemental report was received here to day covering the opposition, as follows:

"Opposition encountered by the Japanese force which landed at Takushan, about fifty miles west of the mouth of the Yalu on May 20 (May 19).

"The Russian force consisted of a squadron of independent trans-

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers. They filter out the impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or untidy heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping dirty, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kline's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar bottles.

You may have a sample bottle by mail. Write to Dr. Kline's Swamp-Root, Inc., 1015 North Second St., New York, N. Y. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kline & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kline's Swamp-Root, and Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

PREACHER KILLS SON.

Deed Was Done in a Fit of Temper.

Owensboro, Ky., May 21.—Rev. W. W. Armour, of Owensboro, Ky., who killed his son Marvin Armour, by striking him on the head with a wagon brake was arrested this morning and lodged in jail at Calhoun. He said that he struck the boy because he had left home and would not return, but did not intend to kill him. He expressed sorrow for his crime and said that he was ready to pay the penalty, and would make no defense of any charge that might be brought against him. Mr. Armour is about fifty years old and is a Methodist Episcopal preacher. He came to Kentucky from Illinois ten years ago and has lived in Sacramento four years. He recently tried to join the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, but was refused admission because he demanded license to preach. There was some talk of a mob immediately after the killing became known, but there is now no danger of violence.

GRANDEUR OF SPAIN THE BAR OF JUSTICE

SOME OF THE OLD RACIAL VIGOR STILL EXISTS.

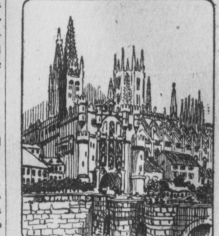

The Don Dreams of the Day When He Will Again Be a Great World Power—The Names of History.

Hope springs eternal in the human breast, and even weary, century-worn Spain is looking forward to a re-awakening of her old commercial and political importance. The nation that once held such proud place in the world's history still has alive within her some of the old racial vigor. In the bitter feeling engendered by the war between Spain and the United States, Americans generally seem to have lost sight of the debt the American continent owes to the former country, many of them forgetting utterly the glory that was Spain's, the grandeur that was hers.

Spain, to-day a minor European power, was once a splendid world-wide empire. In Mr. Ferns's "The Spaniard in History," we have given us in brief the various periods of Spain's history: rise of the Spanish monarchy; the Inquisition; the conquest of Granada; expulsion of the Jews and Moors; the Spanish in the West Indies; the Spaniard in Mexico and Peru; the Spaniard in the Netherlands; the Spaniard in the Netherlands; the Spaniard on the sea. Much resume surely suggests wide conquests, great power.

Spain's rich natural resources were known and made use of before the time of Christ. Phenician traders and colonists being especially attracted by the mineral riches of "Tartarish." The Greeks, Carthaginians, and Romans later made settlements, and in 206 B. C. the country, under the name Hispania, became a Roman province. The fertile land was looked upon as the granary of Rome, and for 300 years was Rome's richest province. To-day there are still standing, most interesting ruins of the bridges, aqueducts and amphitheatres constructed during this period.

The Visigoths supplanted the Roman conquerors, but they themselves were supplanted by Mohammedan Arabs, under whom the kingdom enjoyed a high measure of prosperity. The Arabs made of their new possession a treasure house; princely cities arose, the land was skilfully cultivated, arts and manufactures fostered. In their time, the beauties of the Alhambra unfolded, the cathedral of Cordova raised its thousand marble pillars. Their universities attracted students from all lands, both Christian and pagan. With the original peoples, Iberians and Celts, the invading Visigoths and then the Moors, there were gathered the various races whose mingling produced a powerful nation; the Spain of the 15th and 16th centuries.

The reign of that romantic couple, Ferdinand and Isabella, was a reign in which history was made; among other great events two stand out conspicuously—the conquest of the Moors, and the discovery of America. Though the conquest of the Moors added greatly to martial glory, though the Spaniards in this war learned that discipline that was to make them the mighty military force of Europe, "all the centuries have not restored to Spain what her own sovereigns (in Ferdinand's policy of reducing the Arab civilization to total desolation), in the ten years war against Granada, destroyed." The second event, the discovery of the New World, was the greatest achievement of the 15th century.

At that time Spain was high in power, commanded both the Mediterranean and the Atlantic, her provinces were united, her armies victorious. The tales of the riches of the lands discovered by Columbus filled the Spanish adventurers with impetuous zeal, Spanish exploration and exploitation went on with surprising impetuosity. The West Indies, Mexico and Peru, were invaded and their fabulous wealth seized upon by the avid seekers of fortune and glory. We Americans know the rest of the story, and should yield due reverence to the enterprise and intrepidity of those early Spanish path-finders. If we can not give unstinted admiration to their methods as a whole.

What gallant names of Spanish knight and voyager, of patron and explorer, ring down the centuries, and ever shall be associated with this America of ours—Columbus and his royal aids; the Cabots, Ponce de Leon, Balboa, Cordova, Cortez, Pizarro, Magellan, Narvaez, Cartier, De Soto, Coronado, Cabildo, Melendez, Espejo. Names which closely link the history of America and Spain.

KATHERINE POPE.

MR. BLUE JAY IS PUT ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE.

All of the Evidence Points to His Innocence of the Charges Against Him and He Is Acquitted.

A few days ago I received a letter from a lady whose tender heart is filled with indignation because the thoughtless boys in her neighborhood have declared war on the blue jay. The boys, if it understand the case, have no intention of wrongdoing; on the other hand they seem to be under the impression that they are conferring a benefit on birds and men, by riding the comradery of a confirmed devourer of eggs and nestlings.

Before denying the righteousness of the action of these boys, I must first know what source comes the information concerning the blue jay's villainy. Have these boys actually seen great numbers of bird homes destroyed that the jays might stay their hunger? If they have, then I beg them to let no word of mine interrupt their useful work; let them hold their guns to the zenith and fire no quarter. Otherwise, perhaps it may be well for them to pause and consider whether they are really waging a righteous war or whether they are merely killing helpless creatures which they have condemned to death on hearsay evidence. There is a law in all civilized countries to the effect that when a citizen is charged with an offense, he is entitled to a fair trial, and that he may not be punished unless he is actually proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

A few years ago blue jays brought to the bar of justice, charged with the destruction of eggs and nestlings. He was tried impartially by competent judges, who heard and weighed the evidence for and against as carefully as though a man's life had been at stake, and the expense of the trial were paid by the United States government. The principal witnesses in the case were a few men who testified that they had seen the blue jay eating eggs and nestlings, and 22 blue jays, all of whom gave their lives to the cause of the trial, and of whom 23 testified positively to the falseness of the charge. The evidence for the defendant was so overwhelming that the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty" without leaving the court room. This is, of course, just one way of telling the story, which is nevertheless a true one. The United States government in 1906 made for the blue jay to be made the subject of a rigid investigation.

THE BLUE JAY.

An examination was made of 22 stomachs of blue jays collected in every month of the year, from 22 states, the District of Columbia and Canada. In only five of all these stomachs were there found the remains of birds of the tree and small birds. Of the three eggs shells found in three of the stomachs one and probably two were empty shells, eaten after the young had been hatched. It might be claimed that the jays often eat the contents of eggs without swallowing the shells, but by giving eggs to captive jays it has been shown that the birds are not so anxious for the shells than for the contents.

A great many other facts came out in this investigation. It was shown that more than three-fourths of the blue jay's food consists of vegetable matter, and that of the animal food the greater part was made up of insects, though there was a small percentage of spiders, myriapods, snails, fish, salamanders, tree frogs, mice and birds. Most of the insect food consisted of beetles, grasshoppers and caterpillars, and besides these there were a few bugs, wasps and flies. It was found that blue jays eat insects every month of the year, and the proportion of insect food varies from one per cent. in June to over 66 per cent. in August. The average for the year being nearly 23 per cent. Destructive grasshoppers, crickets and locusts begin to form an important item in the blue jay's bill of fare as early as July, amounting to nearly 20 per cent. of his food during August, and he continues to eat them in considerable numbers until December. As to the caterpillars to which the bird gives his attention may be mentioned those of the brown-tail and grey moths, which work such havoc in the trees in certain parts of the country.

The vegetable food of the blue jay was found to consist of "mast," such as acorns, chestnuts, beechnuts, hazelnuts and nutmeg, grain, such as corn, wheat, oats and buckwheat; fruit, such as apples, strawberries, huckleberries, wild cherries, chokecherries, wild grapes and elderberries, and miscellaneous things such as oak galls, mushrooms and tubers.

On the whole, it was found that the blue jay was a most desirable bird to have, either as an ally of the farmer who had a meagre pittance for benefits received, or as a handsome, jolly neighbor, who is with us with his bright plumage and clever manner when bird life is its job.

ERNEST HAROLD BAYNE.

A THRILLING FIRE STORY.

Tale of the Daring Rescue of a Wounded Fireman by a Brave Comrade.

Pearson's Magazine recently had a thrilling fire story, by Mr. John Austin Schetter. A dramatic rescue is described as follows:

"There was a sudden tear and crack! Williams, looking up, saw that the heavy elevator tackle had burned from its fastenings, and was coming down with all the impetus of its 15 stories' drop! Penfield, unhesitating, choked with anger, leaped out farther.

"Look out, man!" cried Williams. The men with one impulse drew back as the thing came down like a whirlwind and fell, a tangled mass of cable and chain, far below. Penfield had disappeared! For a second every one gazed at the window in dismay.

"Did it take him down with it?" asked Hickey, voicing the fears of the rest.

"No!" cried Williams, in sudden comprehension, "but it's knocked him on the head into kingdom come. He's lying in that room, I'll bet! And that's all that will be at him in a minute." The others stood appalled. There was no way to get across that yawning space. To seek a way through the rooms would take too much time.

"Keep your stream under that window," commanded the captain, suddenly. "Here, give me one of those ladders!" Then they fathomed his purpose as he sought to lay it from window to window. It was to short! "The other, quick!" he cried. It just measured the distance. Another moment and he was on it, crawling on hands and knees to the rescue of the man who had reviled him but a few moments before. He got to the window and stepped inside. His foot touched something soft. It was Penfield! The floor was hot beneath him.

"Here, Penfield, are you hurt?" he asked, lifting the prone figure to a half-sitting position. For an answer the other's head rolled listlessly, while his smashed helmet fell to the floor. The man was insensible, with a vicious cut above his eye from which the blood flowed. But for the helmet he would have had a broken skull! Williams saw that he would have to carry him, and promptly set about it. By herculean effort, of which he was little conscious in the excitement of the moment, he got the wounded man on his back with his arms about his neck. Then he slowly clambered on to the ladder. When the others saw the two, they gasped. Williams had to be very careful lest his burden, swinging to one side, would precipitate them both ten stories below. It was only a space of ten feet, but it seemed an infinite time before it was nearly covered. The rungs of the ladder cut into the rescuer's knees as he slowly worked his way over, but he held on like grim death until the others, reaching him, drew Penfield in to safety."

A Big Circus Coming.

The Great Sells & Downs show have completed all arrangements to exhibit in Hopkinsville, on Tuesday, June 7. The Sells & Downs Show has advanced rapidly during recent years until it has reached the front rank of tented enterprises, and is one of the biggest on the road. It advertises a greater number of features than any other show, and, judging from the comments of the press, the commercial travelers and others who have seen it, the Sells & Downs Show produces all it advertises. With the Sells & Downs Shows from six to eight acts are to be seen at one time, in the three large rings, hippodrome track, on the stage, and in mid air. The management of a show the size of Sells & Downs does not expect the people to be able to watch all of the many features, but they arrange to have several acts of various kinds at the same time so that the spectator may take his choice and enjoy those that he admires most. Since people's tastes differ, it is necessary for a circus the size of Sells & Downs to be cosmopolitan in character in order that all may be pleased, and those who have seen it know that it pleases and satisfies the most critical.

The Great Sells & Downs Shows will positively appear in Hopkinsville for one day only, giving two performances on Tuesday, June 7.

COMMENCEMENT.

Bethel First to Close With Three Graduates.

Dr. E. Y. Mullens' Address To-night a Rare Treat.

The closing exercises of Bethel Female College have been in progress since Friday evening, when the young ladies' reception at the college was a most enjoyable introduction to the week's exercises.

This was followed by a musical recital by the graduating class in the college chapel Saturday evening. Some high class selections were given by the four young ladies taking part, Misses Wilson, Curd, Hille and Lam.

Monday evening the pupils' recital took place. The program published in our last issue was carried out and greatly enjoyed by a large audience.

This evening at the Baptist church Rev. Dr. E. Y. Mullens, President of the Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, will deliver the baccalaureate address.

Dr. Mullens is one of the great men of his denomination and his address will undoubtedly be a discourse that all should endeavor to hear. Miss Mooney will sing a solo and there will be other musical numbers participated in by the college chorus.

The commencement proper will take place Wednesday evening at the college. After a musical program, including a piano solo by Miss Katie Hoge and a vocal solo by Miss Louise Carr, the delivery of diplomas and degrees will be followed by an address by Prof. E. Harrison, the president of the college.

The graduates are Misses Mary Allen Curd, Jessie Elizabeth Wilson and Marie Hille.

The usual reception will conclude the evening's program. The public is invited to all of the exercises.

SHOT NEAR HEART.

Victim of Bullet in Breast May Recover.

Late Thursday afternoon Livy Owen was shot and seriously wounded by James Cannon. Both men live in this city, but the shooting occurred just southeast of town, near the city limits.

It is claimed that the shooting was accidental. The ball struck Owen in the breast, just below the heart. The wounded man was brought to the city and given prompt medical attention, but probing failed to locate the ball.

Cannon was taken before Judge Fowler, where he furnished bond in the sum of $500, for his appearance.

While Owen's wound is considered a very dangerous one, he was reported better on yesterday, and may recover.

The date of the examining trial has not yet been fixed.

DROGGED TO DEATH.

Horrible Accident Happened to Negro of Near Howell.

Tom Davie, col., employed on the farm of Mr. G. W. McKnight, near Howell, was killed last Thursday. When found Davie had been dead some time. He had been at work in the field plowing and the supposition is that he, at the dinner hour, attempted to mount his mule, when the animal took fright and ran. Davie's foot evidently caught in the trace chain, as he was dragged a considerable distance and his face, head and body were badly cut and bruised. He was a man of family.
